

‘Getting Ready for the NDIS’ workshops in Rockhampton

Hello,

Do you have questions about the NDIS?

Do you need support with pre-planning for the NDIS?

Do you want to hear about other people’s experiences with the NDIS?

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) will be introduced in the Rockhampton region on 1 November. To get the most of this exciting new scheme, it is important that you prepare yourself well. Blue Care regularly organises ‘Getting Ready for the NDIS’ – workshops, where you can ask anything you would like to know about the NDIS process. We can also help you fill in your pre-planning booklet.
