About Blue Care Retirement Living

For over 60 years Blue Care has built a reputation as the leading provider of residential aged care, caring for the elderly, people with disabilities and others in a time of need.

Blue Care's retirement living villages are located across Queensland. Our villages give retirees the freedom to manage their daily lifestyle with the added benefit of access to community facilities, social and recreational activities, maintenance and security.

Care on your doorstep

Ardmore is co-located with a Blue Care Aged Care Facility. Blue Care can also offer eligible residents access to a full range of community services, including nursing, allied health, personal care, domestic assistance, social support and pastoral care.

Moving into a Blue Care village

When moving into a Blue Care Retirement Living village you are required to pay an ingoing contribution that varies between villages. Enquire now and a Blue Care representative will provide you with the relevant details for your village of interest.

If you choose to leave the village, the balance of the ingoing contribution is refunded less exit fees.

Financial assessments are not required when moving into a Blue Care Retirement Living village.
